said that he had been taking a lively interest in the incidents attending and following the killing of Judge Terry, and especially those relating to his brother. He, however, had examined the case dispassionately and is thoroughly convinced that the killing was justifiable, and that the arrest of his brother by the Chilfornia authorities was not only an injustice to him, but a disgrace to the supreme bench of the nation and to the people of the whole country.

"The incident suggests a thing," said Mr. Field, "to which too little attention has been paid, and that is the almost total lack of that superior respect that I think is due the United States bench. The democracy has gone somewhat too far. The supreme court is, in a way, one of the co-ordinate parts of this government, and it is entitled to respect as such. In a measure it should be esteemed and held as inviolate as the exective. The same causes that contribute to your special respect for the executive should also lend the American people to have a regard for the bench. It does not appear to do so. The supreme and other United States judges must be protected by the government when it is necessary."

Mr. Field thinks that Governor Waterman's order to the attorney general of California to have the indictment against Neagle quashed is justified from a legal point of view.

General W. T. Sherman, while talking to quashed is justified from a legal point of view.

General W. T. Sherman, while talking to Mr. Field, said: "I was very glad to hear of Governor Waterman's action in your brother's case. I am delighted to know that there is at least one man out there who has a proper appreciation of the respect due to a justice of the supreme court of the United States. In this country we find almost no respect paid to men in authority. It is something particularly due the supreme bench, and I am of opinion that this episode has been a good leason to the country."

mayigation of the treasury department has sent to the United States shipping commission, with instructions to post in their officer copies of the decision rendered by the United States circuit court district of Oregon, in the case of the ship Oakes Measures have also been taken to bring the decision to the attention of the United States consular officers.

In this case two members of the crew libeled the vessel to recover wages. The court reviewed the testimony, to the effect that the min had been guilty of premeditated and persistent shirting and slighting of duty that they had refused to discharge oargo and had been discharged at a foreign port by the United States consul with parament of wages to date of discharge and an extra month's pay. The court denied their spylication for pay for the entire volvage, and in concluding the opinion said. I have taken more pains and time with this case than the intrinsic difficulty of it demands May reason for so doing is that I am strongly impressed with the idea that the whole from the grows out of the methods and purposes of the Seamen's union of San Francisco. It appears to be organized for the purpose of controlling the conduct and employment of seamen on this const, to the end that ships shall be havigated in the interest and at the pleasure of the forecastle, without any refer ice to the rights or interests of the owner. Acting on this idea, these beligerents undertook to administer to the master the prescribed medicine for his refusal to submit to their distriction by lottering and triding over their work in discharging the carpo at the expense of the ship but the law will not tolerate such conduct. The contract of libellants require them to be did gent and obedient in the discharge of their dure. The best of our farmers are finding the need of such education, but the larger portion of them do not realize the need of it secon. The reason why our regrecultural college is not patron zed in this section is that farmers don't know the value of such an education. We have improved agricultural.

Of late years especially in the older parts of the country farm lands have been on the decline. The mason is not far to seek. Do creasing fertility has orou ht many sections creasing fertility has brought to many sections below profitable productive capacity. Under a system of farming that meant a continual decrease in fertility firm lands soon thange from the very best to the very worst forms of security. Land cannot run away I at for farming purposes fertility is all that in dee I and visitable. Lertility is as well title as ammonia.

A change to smaller farms with thorough fillage and increasing fertility is the effectivit rendered in size to the Old World standard, will not the American farmer become like the European merely a pessant, a serior a boor? We do not believe this danger exists Conditions here are not, and cannot for hundreds of years yet be what they are in lurrope. The land in I raise is doubtlessed too nuch divided for the public good. There is yet hind enough here for comfortable sized fains for all willing to work them. It is not and never can be here difficult to built and.

UAPROFIFABLE FARM STOCK

No farmer would think of cond icting ordi The strong competition to which firm ago. The strong competition to which firm all circylly where are subjected obliges than to use the best implements that can be purchised. I knew the last ways in the year a unbiastatingly bought under this incressity of getting the crop secured at least cost perform Whateversayes labor must be had no matter what the cost may be. His there been a corresponding improvement in the average, farm stock of the country is compared with that of agricultural implements? In some respect there has been and its appreciation by farmers generally is now what is most needed to make farming a profitable business. I ski, for illustration the dairy business in which improve it to fecows for mith, and futter production has been far, at act after than the improvenciation by his been for the start production in the dairy business in which improve it to fecows for mith, and futter production has been far, at creation the improve.

silv is now what is most needed to make farming a politable business. I she for illustration the dary dusiness in which improve in a created to make and lutter product durino has been for the farm stock. How inge a proporation of the crimary class of farmers keep better, owe than did their fathers and grindlathers. When only rative stock was kept their were even then some furly good cows capable of yielding, oppointed comes of butter per year. It used to be a matter of prolationing good farmers to get the best. Fo be suce the best did not cost so very much note than the average. Inthistook bree higher independently as an indea by since it good comes for the best cost of the post costs over much note than the average. Inthistook bree higher independently as an indea by since it good and togistered took. Sometimes prices in two be run up to fanny reles, but in the great importing of institutes the scennings high prices are based only on carried computation of we is the cow and her pogeny can do.

Keeping the best stock ought to be rull considered a libor size polity. There seems to be such a criza for aristing that will save indea that they need of the three seems to be such a criza for aristing that will save indea that they need to that they need to the triangent of the business good of the business good of the business good of the business good of the farmers of the seed carried to a triangent over the feeding two cows for the mix and butter that one should give or doubt the stock of any kind that is needed. Only in the very rulest and mot business. It has not have not a crizal for aristing that will save indea the total of the post stock they posses. The days of runching and large herds of the business of the farmers of the farmers in those sections feel keeply that a form of the farmers in those sections feel keeply that the farmers and find to keep in the critical farmers in those sections feel keeply that it is not in the only the very best slock will pay it with a farmers in these of the farmers to be suc size of firms, with a ruinous in reason the area sown to grain beyond the power of the firmer to properly manure and cultivate. In every aspect that it can be looked at the substitution of profitable for unprofitable stock seems the pressing necessity of American farmers. It is only by keeping the best stock that a farmer can afford to keep enough to restore lost soil ferturity when he gets the best stock he can buy feed to supply ement that grown on the larm, and vet get the manure pile free of cost. As long as he keeps only pour from stock, the home made manure may very possibly be, and often is much dearer than the most costic commercial fertilizers—dimensional Culturation.

CLOVER HAY Mr Terry's success in keeping his horses

on clover hav without grain is not a surprise to me. Meny years ago a man just over from Pagiand fed and drove my team for the from Inglued fed and drove my team for the season. He was an expect plowman and manager and trainer of firm, horses having been employed on a large farm in that capitats nearly all his life. My term was fed good timothy hay and from four to six quarts of outs three times a day for each horse. After feeding and driving the timing two or three mouths he said to me that it would be seen because they have the said to me that horse After feeding and drawing the team for two or three months he said to me that he would as soon have such clover has as he had in I ugland without my grain we bake my timothy hav and grain combined. As he was a man of experience truthfulia wand sound Judoment, I believed his statement to he true, but as juthaps one the doff the houses in this section had the houses, and many farmers thought cover was the enuse of the trouble, I continued to feel inputs, has and grain A few years afterward I owever when I be gan i testing clover without it may get the throught, ome of it was put in the horse bern in II then throught—if was be far the horse har even fed to my terms. It was it who if it report the field and richt errect in the cold the same enson I discovered the print plant of such clover for rows given guilt and have since if dit to them rather than the hor of the part of cert all von I the.

They all agree that dairying cannot be conducted to advantage, and to compete with modern creamery work unless enstings is fid, as it affords a ration, with a die proportion of meal that is more satisfactory and healthful and economical than the old system of feeding. What is published gives the opinions and expectence of many competent persons and proves the great importance of this way of preserving green food. It is the time of year who is many have corn standing that can be mide into ensiting, and the way to build a silo and save the corn is fully laid down in the selections made and will prove valuable to those who wish to try the same. Hourd's Dairyman advises all to build slow as the best means to preserve any toider and that paper is considered the best authority on all that relates to dairying.

His Absolute Fower and Tremendous Responsibilities

Lendon 3rd day Review

Their exempt it is true from the danger of assassination except possibly by poison but not only is he the ultimate referee on all subjects connected with government from 300 000 000 of people singularly liable to colossal disaster from famine flood, earthquake and epidemics and hable also for all their submissiveness to the maddest burst of insurrectionary fury not only has he to satisfy those millions as if they were in some sense a divine being and to control them without a stanling army, not only has he to resist a permanent menace of invasion from the north and in termittent threats of invasion by the coast not only has he to control a huge civil service the most corrupt in the world and the one in which the great men are the most powerful but he has to remember that he is unintended emperor and to maintain the assendency of his house and clain against milbons upon mill one of subjects who deep as is their reverence for his office have never forgotten that the dynasty is a dynasty of intruders. Out with the Tantar, is the cry for which every emperor of China listens and there are mon in the empire with whom he must leaf canbously hecouse they attract Chinese as opposed to Tartai loyalty.

into the country are inclined to collect this imaginary debt from the farmer and rob his orchards or incline patch, without remorse or ruth

Yesterday a well known plumber was recounting to a gang of the boys" his adventures while on a hunting trip some twenty miles up the Williamette a few days since. A farmer near where the hunting party were staying had a patch of water melous and he had been much amoyed by boys stealing them. Of course the huntiers wanted melous and, of course they must ateal them. It never occurred to them that it would be be better to pay the farmer for what he had rused at the cost of much band labor and rrouble. They were not mean nor strings nor dishonest but they were out for a raid when a fellow came into cimp and told them that the old man a sup by the road side on the watch armed with a gun, and that he was not easily in his melon patch. Then these some of Behal deviced a scheme most devil h in its ingenuity to circumvent the honest farmer. One of them procured a cowbell and proceeded by a round about why to the center of the farmer's comfield which was a short of stance from the moon patch. The remander of the gang crept up to a place from which the runer a confield which was a short of stance from the moon patch. The remander of the gang crept up to a place from which their could watch the movements of the farmer. The fellow in the course for 1 jangled the bells tunk a lunk of the cring or outlined of ern. The fellow in the course for the farmer and the bit stopped fine farmer given remained which was a short of stance from the moon match. The remander of the gang crept up to a place from which the supposed cow mesticated her mouthful of corn. Then the bell rang again tunk a lunk a lunk tunk and stopped. The farmer given retires a cut the bit stopped fine farmer given retires. A couple or what they will eat fur they will ture down so a uch. I guess I will have to go and drive them out. I he norghbor went on down the road the bit lingest moin he told find, made the best of his war print
The fellows who got the melons should send him the v lue of them for only the farmer himself knows the labor he had expended in planting hoeting and unliviting them and it is not right to steal

HARVESTING THE HOP CROP

Prospects of a Yield-Pickers Gone to the Front hing About 500 Chinamen have already gone to different hop fields, and 150 more leave Ash street dock this morning for the vicinity of inderendence.

They rective 50 cents per hox for picking The crop is not heavy this year. The few showers of rain which have follen and the prospects for more have a fandency to make the hop growers desire to get at work and the general idea that the rainy soason will begin exity will make them auxious to pish the picking as rapidly as possible.

The nop circular resued by f Meeker & Co of Pickallup Washington territors August 22 says.

of Paradiup Washington territors August 22 says
At this writing in the Puyallup valley some have gone so far as to get their pickers on the ground and hive given out word that they will begin picking soon. This creatis uniest among other pickers intenting to come to the hep fields for other vaids leading least they will be too late and likewise among other growers fearing they too would be too late to get their crew to pick their crop crop because of the lateness of the arrival of pickers last year growers were compelled as never before to let their hops much and tho result has been that Washington hops have altained a better starding in the market than heretofer. The cult to fink ers caused great loss it is the last the arms caused great loss it is the last the same take thought a greater gain by far in the greater value of the hops saved.

Mr. Meeker cauthons growers not to judge of the repress of a held of hops by those yan plea, within easy reach remembering that at the top of the pole the hops are usually much later. The hops that are picked in an tramature state are of much less market villes yield very much less in weight and approach that condition of being very nearly worthless to the consumer, hence we would caution growers not to rush to the extreme of early picking because of the supposed danger of loss. The early picking in the a cettain loss white a later beginning brings a compensating return even it some brings a compensating return even if some on territing with the feeling that there bales. In sympathy with the feeling that there will be an abundant sumply of hops the speculative spirit has goneaut of dealers he curbereds no market for in tures. The price of hops of the crop of 1888 in the ansente of active demand and the ne ran proach to the new crop has falten off tulls 2 cents per pound since the issuance of our irrution of the 18t inst. We confidently look for an active demand whenever the hops are in the bale and believe that every bale of strictly choice. Washington hops will be called for before the serious is out at fair a remunerative (1) cess.
